Career Guidance Workshop

A Career Guidance Workshop was organized jointly by Mangalore University's University Employment Information and Guidance Bureau (UEIGB) and Sri Bhuvanendra College, Karkala on 14th October 2025. The program aimed to provide valuable insights into career planning, employment opportunities, and essential interview skills for graduating students.

Inaugural Session

The program commenced at 10:00 a.m. with the inaugural function. The session was presided over by Dr. Manjunath A. Kotian, Principal of Sri Bhuvanendra College, Karkala. The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Dasharatha P. Angadi, Chief, University Employment Information and Guidance Bureau, and Professor, Department of Geography, Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri.

In his inaugural address, Dr. Angadi highlighted the importance of self-assessment, awareness of career opportunities, and continuous skill development. Dr. Manjunatha A. Kotian, in his presidential remarks, emphasized the need for students to stay focused, confident, and well-prepared for competitive professional environments.

Technical Session

The technical session was handled by Dr. Meena J. Panikker, Principal, Sharada College, Talapady, who served as the Resource Person for the day. She delivered an insightful talk on “Job Opportunities and Interview Skills,” guiding students on effective resume preparation, interview etiquette, communication skills, and the current job market trends. Her interactive session inspired students to approach career-building with confidence and clarity.

Participants

The workshop witnessed active participation from all final year students of Sri Bhuvanendra College across various disciplines. The session was highly interactive, with students engaging enthusiastically in discussions and question-answer sessions.
